WILMINGTON'S PRIZE WINNING NEWSPAPER

VOL 7 NO 24

NORTH WILMINGTON, MASS. JUNE 11, 1959

PRICE 10 CENTS

D. P. U. APPEAL TO BE HEARD TODAY

The appeal of the Town of Wilmington, re the D.P.U. decision on the B&M RR service to Wilmington, will be heard this morning, in the Pemberton Square Courthouse.

Town Counsel Phillip Buzzell will present the plea, in a Single Justice session. He is scheduled to be heard some time after 9:30 am.

Puzzell, acting for the Board of Selectmen is asking for an injunction against the railroad's proposal to change train service, Sunday morning. Under the proposal, already approved by the DPU, the North Wilmington railroad station is to be abandoned, and all passenger traffic for Lawrence and Haverhill will be routed over the Wildcat Railroad.

WILMINGTON BUILDERS TO ENLARGE OFFICE

Plans have been filed with the Building Inspector for enlarging the office of the Wilmington Builder's Supply Co. on Main Street.

The office building is to be extended another 25 feet, along Main Street, in the direction of Silver Lake.

MAY BE NINE ARTICLES IN SPECIAL TOWN MEETING WARRANT

There may be a total of nine articles in the Warrant for the Special Town Meeting of June 22nd. The Selectmen had not finished tabulating them when the board adjourned, at 1:45 am Tuesday morning.

One is for the erection of a school off Rutwell St., submitted by the Permanent Building Committee.

Minot Anderson, Building Inspector, has submitted an article for correction of the Building Laws, in four places.

An article will be submitted by the Selectmen relative to gravel removal.

Another article by the Selectmen will ask for the right to sell a small portion of land to the Poston Edison Co. for their new power line.

Rezoning articles submitted include one of rezoning the land of the Murphy Real Estate Company, and Charlie's Service Station, in South Wilmington and another for rezoning land across from the DeMoulas supermarket.

The Water Department is submitting an article asking that funds left in excess, after the building of the water tower off Hillside Way be used for other purposes.

Both Danny Gillis, Chairman of the Planning Board, and Phillip Buzzell, Town Counsel, have submitted articles calling for revision of the 'sign' portion of the By-Laws.

The Selectmen will probably submit an article asking for the town's approval of their recent actions with regard to the appeal of the DPU decision re the Poston & Maine RR.

JACK WYRTZEN RALLY

Evangelist Jack Wyrzten, who preached to a capacity audience at the Wilmington Grange Hall in 1956, will return to this town to hold another youth rally next Thursday evening, June 18. It will be held (cont Pg 7)

CAMPANELLI & CARDI GO BACK 15 MONTHS

The firm of Campanelli & Cardi, contractors on Route 93, 15 months ago started negotiations with the Board of Selectmen leading to the establishment of a gravel pit on land of Henry Mastermarino, off West Street.

The Town Engineer prepared a plan that the Selectmen were willing to approve, but it was rejected by C&C engineers. The plan called for removal of ledge, where exposed.

A few weeks later the Town Engineer discovered that illegal operations were going on in the Mastermarino area, and an injunction from the Court stopped the gravel operations.

This week Campanelli & Cardi, through Mr. Campanelli, went back 15 months, and accepted the town's proposal.

Pending a Board of Appeals hearing, Thursday night, C&C have agreed to run the Mastermarino pit according to the town's ideas.

350,000 Yards Needed

Campanelli was accompanied by Atty Richard Sheppherd, and Jack Ryan, Highway Superintendent and Engineer.

Ryan told the Selectmen that approximately 350,000 yards of gravel and fill was still needed for the highway, which is now 85% complete.

He estimated that he could get 150,000 yards from the Mastermarino property, and still stay within the Selectmen's limitations.

The firm also desires to remove gravel and fill from property of Ernest Eames, and of George Dunn of Wakefield, and has petitioned the Board of Appeals. The hearing is to be heard tonight.

The Selectmen told C&C to 'look at the Mastermarino property first, and then maybe we'll look at Eames & Dunn'.

GILDART'S WAR ON GAS PRICES

GILDART REFUSES TO SELL GAS AT WILMINGTON PRICES

Larry Gildart, owner of the Gildart Chevrolet Company, on Main Street has closed his gas station. A sign hangs over the oil rack reading 'No Gas until further notice'.

Mr. Gildart has declared war on the price structure of the major gas companies, which charge Wilmington dealers 2 cents a gallon more than they charge Reading dealers.

Pointing out that the people of Wilmington are being robbed by this practice if they shop at home, 'and that the gas dealers of Wilmington are losing business anyway, because of the price inequality, Gildart has severed his connection with the Gulf Oil Company.

'Gas prices', Gildart stated last week, 'are supposed to be on a distance from the base of operations, which might sound fair, but actually isn't. The major gas companies will always support the local dealers in a 'price war', by cutting their delivery prices, but they will not support dealers who object to having to gouge their friends.'

Gildart termed the drop of 3¢ in gas prices, Tuesday afternoon, as being temporary, and having nothing to do with his war against the gas companies.

His station will remain closed.

PERMANENT MEMORIAL PROPOSED BY SCHOOL COMMITTEE IN MEMORY OF DR. DUDLEY BUCK

A permanent memorial, in memory of Dr. Dudley A. Buck, and for the benefit of Wilmington School Children, has been proposed by the Wilmington School Committee.

In a resolution, written by Arthur V. Lynch, School Committee member, last week, the school board voted to do every thing in its power to establish, or assist in the establishment of such a memorial for the Wilmington scientist whose recent untimely death has saddened the community.

The Resolution reads:

WHEREAS, the Lord, in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from us the lovable, learned Dr. Dudley A. Buck, and,

WHEREAS, In our all too brief association with him, he had so endeared himself to us by his brilliant thinking and clarity of expression, THEREFORE, Be it Resolved, that the School Committee in meeting assembled spread upon the Record our deepest regret at his untimely passing, and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the School Committee lend every effort to the creation of a Permanent Memorial to his efforts in behalf of the Youth of Wilmington.

AWARDED GREER SCHOLARSHIP
Thomas Fuller, Wilmington High School Senior who was awarded the J. W. Greer Scholarship prize of $500, at graduation, last Thursday evening. He will attend Wentworth, to study machine design.

THE SANCTIMONIOUS GRAVEL BOOTLEGGER AND OTHER FABLES

After the late election there were those who believed that the Termites would sink back into the woodwork. Unfortunately, this is not so.
They continue to take pot shots at Town Hall, at our TM, and at anyone else possible. They seek to spread all the discredit they can.

Right now they seek to have the world believe that Mr. Ruggerio of Andover Street is the finest gravel pit operator in the world, and that their infamous Political Machine, that was sold out to the Termites, is the only reason on the "gravel law" was passed.

Let's talk of the machine first, and then the Bootleg Gravel Pit.

Chapter 287 of the Acts of 1959 is our so-called "gravel law". We aren't 100% positive that it is the answer to our needs, but it seems to be effective so far.

The first move was that of Rep. Frank Tanner who introduced the gravel legislation at the behest of our Board of Selectmen. The last move was that of Selectman Frank Hagerty, who moved,
and the Selectmen voted unanimously, to thank both Reps Tanner and Donohue, and Senator Madden for their "fine non-partisan" efforts on behalf of the Town of Wilmington, with reference to the passage of the "gravel law".

And, immediately after the Governor signed the law, when Rep Donohue made the announcement
he stated that "it was the telegrams that did it". Mr. Donohue was referring to the telegrams that had been sent by our Selectmen, and the people who had attended the Baldwin Club "Gravel Forum".

And, we think we are not in error when we say that the people in this Machine are not to be counted in the Baldwin Club.

And, as for the Bootleg Gravel Pit, which now seems to be Termite's Heaven, seeing how many of them have been pointing at it with pride, in the past week or so.

Mr. Ruggerio was granted a license by the Board of Selectmen. He refused to accept that license. He refused to submit a contour plan.
He operated in defiance to the law. He was finally stopped after several days of deliberate delay, by a court-issued injunction.

The gravel had been removed to a depth of 30 feet below the street level.

The Court ordered that the remaining gravel be graded, and that loam be spread over what was left. It gave just three weeks to do this,
on penalty of a fine, or jail.

So the Bootleg Pit was cleaned up, just as the court ordered, and now the Termites have formed a clique, applauding Mr. Ruggerio for his "public spirit".

A NEW MINISTER?

For about six months the Congregational Church has been without a minister. Choosing a pastor, for the Congregationalists, is not an easy task.

In somewhat the same manner as a Town Manager is chosen by our Selectmen, the Congregationalists appoint a committee to consider candidates. So far, (as of two weeks ago) 26 different candidates have been considered, and for one reason or another not chosen.

Now there is a call for a meeting of the Church, on June 21st. Maybe the members of the church are about to get a new pastor.

SUNDAY HOURS

The public, largely, is unaware of the tensions existing today among our grocery store and supermarket operators - a tension that is not easing with the eminent construction of three more supermarkets in Wilmington.

Our Board of Selectmen, with all the good intentions in the world, have increased those tensions.

They have ruled, perhaps unofficially, but nevertheless with decision, that the "small" stores can be open on Sunday, but the "large" ones cannot. They refused a Sunday license to Stevens Supermarket. They revoked a Sunday license to Lucci's, and they refused to issue one to Elia's Country Store.

Their idea, plainly, is that the "little"
fellow needs protection.

We don't quite agree - in fact we think the Selectmen are wrong - very much so.

The Sunday Laws (except for the "Kosher" feature recently decided by the Supreme Court)
are equally applicable to all. The Selectmen, in deciding for the "small" stores are being unfair.

Presumably the "small" stores sell only bread, milk, tobacco and Sunday papers. Actually most of them engage in the sale of meat,
which is strictly forbidden by the Sunday laws.

Some of our "smaller" stores, Elia's Busy Corner, and Tattersall's, for instance, are owned by people who are in the one business only.

Others are owned by people who might be called "moonlighters". Mamma, so as to speak, picks Daddy's lunch. He goes off to work, and Mamma tends the store. Then, when Daddy comes home in the evening, he takes over while Mamma cooks the family supper.

In protecting the "small" stores our Selectmen are actually being discriminating.

Either the law is to be obeyed, or it is to be ignored. Neither the Board of Selectmen, nor the Police, nor anyone else can take it into their hands to enforce "halfway" measures.

Any store that applies for a Sunday license should get it, if any are to. Either that, or no Sunday licenses at all.

And if Sunday licenses are to be granted,
the storeowners should be policed, to make sure they sell only those things that the law allows

SCHOLARSHIPS

Our congratulations to the Seniors who were awarded scholarships, at the High School Graduation, last Thursday evening. They earned them, it goes without saying, and they deserved them.
It is a pity indeed that there were not more to be awarded.

Most of the scholarships, it will be noted, were in the hundred dollar bracket. Well intended, freely given, happily received, they still are only a small sum of money for a student on his way to college. But they do help, and that is what is intended.

For many years we have had organizations in this town which have been trying to supplement the town's money, by building sand boxes for children, etc. They have, in their own way been trying to do good. Happily, most of these have now seen the light, and are contributing toward a scholarship instead.

Scholarships, for Wilmington Students, are not plentiful. We should have more.

THE MAIN STREET CROSSING

We wrote a piece for this column about three weeks ago expressing our opinion of the gentlemen of the DPU, and their permitting the B&M to use the Wildcat Railroad for Lawrence and Haverhill passenger traffic.

TOWN NOTES

Two Inches of Rain

The month of June opened up with two inches of rain descending from the skies. We had 1.48 inches on June 2nd, and another .56 inches on the 6th (thunder, lightning, hail) and more traces of rain on June 1 and 3.

So, for the first week in June 2.04 inches.

Pumping Water

Our Water Department is always setting new records, in the way of pumping water, as the demand continues to increase.

On May 28th they set their latest, 2,073,200 gallons in a 24 hour period. For the week they pumped 13,707,700 gallons, which is also a new record.

InterState 93

The new overpass for Route 62 was used by motorists for a couple of days last week.
For a while the cops were shunting the motorists onto
the new road, which bridges Route 93, in North Wilmington
but now it is blocked off.

Also blocked off is Salem
St. near Bill Durkees. Power shovels are trying to find out how deep the peat is,
where the road was.

The Selectmen, Monday night voted to close off the very northern end of Woburn Street where the bridge over a small brook is collapsing because of heavy truck traffic.

Autos are now using the new Woburn Street bridge, over 93 which leads to the new end of Park Street.

All told it is enough to keep a motorist dizzy. If you see someone going in circles you'll know he comes from North Wilmington.

Thunderstorm

The thunderstorm of last Saturday didn't cause any damage other than a few ruffled feelings, in Wilmington.

The Rotary Club, out to increase their $1500 in scholarship funds, ran into tough luck, with their carnival, as a result of the down pour.

And the Methodist Church,
all ready for an auction, had all sorts of furniture and bric-a-brac sitting out in the open, when the storm broke.

The furniture didn't get too wet, but it can safely be said that some of Wilmington's Methodist Men were.

No Vest

If Mike Weinberg were the type of man who wore a vest he would be popping all the buttons, right now.

Mike's neice, Beverly Jane Sparks, of Ballardvale has been named Miss Greater Lawrence, in Junior Chamber of Commerce contests, and is now on her way to the Miss Massachusetts contest, in Taunton,
in August.

She is 18, accomplished, and,
of course, beautiful, and Mike says she is planning to have a dancing school, in Wilmington,
this fall.

Bus Transportation

The Eastern Mass buses started rolling Sunday. After a six month or-so strike, from which no one profited, as far as we can tell, there is once again transportation.

So far, we must confess, we haven't seen a single passenger, in any of the buses we have watched.

Lawrence Street

About 25%, at least, of the homes on Lawrence Street and Lawrence Court are reported to be for sale - reason, train
traffic on the Wildcat RR.

No Watch

For the first time in years
there was no award, at the High School graduation, for Perfect Attendance.

Henry Billauer, for many years one of the leading jewelers of Woburn used to give the awards. He passed on to his reward, not too long ago.

We understand that there were three candidates, for the award, all of whom had had perfect attendance.

Mosquitoes

Our 'Bug Department' is out nearly every day, spraying for mosquitoes. They go to places

We have no bones to pick of course, with these gentlemen on other than this decision. The railroad has to make money to survive, and like others of good will, we would like to see this happen.

But the news that drifted back from Boston after we wrote that piece would indicate otherwise. "Bitter" and "Biting" were two of the words we heard.

About every three days, in Wilmington Square at 5 pm we get a terrific traffic jam. Cars are stretched back for over half a mile in either direction. On the Wildcat Crossing of Route 38 there will be automobiles which are unable, for several minutes at a time, to either advance or back up.

What is going to happen when some of those trains headed for Lawrence and Haverhill try to use that crossing at the same time?

COMMENDATION IS DESERVED

We take pride in drawing to the attention of our Board of Selectmen the excellent police work of members of our Police Department, a week ago, in the apprehension of three armed bandits.

Acting in the best traditions of their craft five Wilmington officers, in full cooperation with the Tewksbury and Andover police captured three armed ex-convicts, who had robbed the Methuen High School (breaking through a brick wall to do so), and two places in Andover.

The Tewksbury Police found a safe, in a wooded area, that held papers from one of the Andover robberies.

An ex-convict of Wilmington, Harry Parker, graduate of both the Middlesex and Essex Houses of Correction was suspected. The suspicion turned out to be true. One of his partners in the crime, a full blooded Indian by the name of Robert Condi, turned out to be an ex-cell mate of Parker's, in the Essex institution.

Sgt. Sheppard, of the Wilmington Police, working with officers Fuller, Dolan, Ellsworth, and Langone, and drawing upon their knowledge, professionally acquired, were able to "stake out" the movements of Parker. When he was captured he was found to be armed with a .38 revolver. Under the front seat of his car, cunningly hidden, were four other weapons, one of them a shot-gun cut down to revolver size. Also in the same cache were monies and other evidences of their Andover robberies.

Parker, incidentally, pled for a chance to "shoot it out" with the local police - a most foolhardy plea, considering Sheppard's deserved reputation as a marksman.

The Police Departments of all three towns are to be commended for their fine spirit of cooperation, and it is our hope that our Board of Selectmen will take cognizance of the fine work of our local police.

where the wind will carry the spray down into the swamps, and do their stuff (although it is our observation that the mosquitoes thrive on the stuff nowadays).

Put the boys were stopped cold, the other day, down off King Street. They couldn't get through, on Crescent Street, because some private land-owner had put a barricade across the street.

Remedial Reading

We understand that some girls wish to attend the Girl Scout Day Camp, and the Remedial Reading classes too, but are afraid of a conflict of times. The Girl Scout Camp directors have announced that transportation to the Remedial Classes will be provided, for any girl who is in both activities.

198 pupils in the grammar schools should have the extra teaching, as well as 48 in the high school. These pupils were given notices to take home, telling parents of their low grades, and the desirability of attending the summer school. Only 18 pupils were signed up to attend the school, out of the 48 in the High School, because of the low number, and believing that many of the children had possibly failed to take home their notice, the School Committee has voted that a letter be sent to each home, where a student has need of the summer class.

Class hours have been set from 8:30 to 10:00 am and from 10:15 to 11:45 am.

Registration will be held in the office of the Wilmington High School, Wednesday June 24 from 9 to 11:30 am. There is to be no charge connected with the school.

CASTINGS FROM A BOOKWORM
In keeping with the rejuvenation of the Common, the Library will soon be gay with colorful window boxes, the gift of the Friends of the Library. The Friends, as you know, are responsible for the reprinting of the 'Life of Asa Sheldon; Wilmington Farmer', copies of which may be purchased from Mrs August MacLeod, High St., North Wilmington, at $6.00 each, or if more convenient, you may leave your order at the Library, where the book is on display.

For leisurely browsing, it is suggested that you take advantage of the new Friday morning hours, - ten to twelve. - Apart from the new books in the front section, you will find many good books in the stacks and in the rear room - biographies, gardening, travel, and many old favorites. Of the new books, you will enjoy meeting the Van Doren family in 'The Professor and I', by Dorothy Van Doran, and for high adventure, take 'A Short Walk' with Eric Newby, who with his friend, Hugh Carless, (two amateurs) attempted to climb Mt. Everest, which is in the 20,000 foot zone. There are also the usual mysteries and westerns by your favorite authors. C.P.C.

FAIRMEADOW ROAD GETS A JUNE 22 PROMISE

14 residents of Fairmeadow Road and vicinity, led by Bill Perry, Mayor of Nichols Street were given a promise by the Board of Selectmen, Monday night, that work would start on Fairmeadow Road in the week of June 22nd.

The group were attendants at the meeting for about 20 minutes, during which there were a little fireworks, mostly on the part of Selectman Hagerty.

Hagerty was not satisfied with the week of June 22nd. He moved, almost hysterically, that work 'start tomorrow', a move that was applauded by the Fairmeadow Road boys.

No one seconded Hagerty's motion, and practically no one heard Mrs. Drew observe that Fairmeadow Road, like the other exempted streets in town, were part of a five year program.

Cliff Braman, a member of the party, spoke up to say that he felt that the water main now going over the Nichols Street Bridge spoiled all future chances of having the bridge altered. He was told that such was not the case.

Berry asked if the rocks on Nichols Street could also be removed, in the same time as the Fairmeadow Road operation. De Felice told him that was a Water Department operation. Also promised to the Fairmeadow Road boys was that their street would be the first to be oiled, when the oiling program starts in early July.

DOUBLE SESSIONS VOTED

Grades 4, 8, and 9

The School Committee has voted Double Sessions, this fall for children of grades 4, 8 and 9, to last approximately two months.

Voted last week, at the regular meeting, the move had been recommended by the Superintendent of Schools as the best of three possible choices.

24 classes are involved. The School Committee rejected the idea of having double sessions for classes 9 to 12, which also numbers 24 classes, as they also did for the first grade, (12 classes).

School Superintendent John Collins told the Committee that the architects of the off-Glen Road School had advised him, as of that day, that the school would not be ready for occupancy until 'late October'.

MERRI-MACS LOSE AGAIN AS FORD KEEPS HIGH SPOT
After almost handing the high flying Ford team their first loss of the year, last week, the Weinbergers turned around and added to the misery of the Merri-Macs by handing them their second straight loss, Monday evening with a 7 to 6 score.
Tight pitching by Joe Gilligan and Dave O'Connell kept the two teams close, but with the Merri-Macs in front, 6-4, going into the last of the seventh.
With a runner on first, and no outs, Ralph Tarricone blasted a mighty homer deep into center field to tie the score. Then Dave O'Connell won his own ball game by a single base hit to center field, with a runner on second, and still no outs.

Dave is apparently going to prove the answer to a coach's prayer - 'Oh for a good hitting pitcher'.
Wednesday night the Poly-Chemicals lost their winning ways, and once again supped on the bitter taste of defeat as the Stingers topped them 12 to 4.
The Stingers are managed by Dick Woods, who counts out on his fingers to see who is going to pitch. So far he has used three pitchers in four games. Wednesday he used Joe Woods, who turned in a creditable performance.

Dick has been noticed attending games as a spectator. Rumor has it that he is planning a 'big' swap. Perhaps he is looking for another pitcher.

There must have been something in the air other than mosquitoes, in the Town Park Thursday night, when the Methodist Conquerors and the Ford team clashed in more or less mortal combat.

Jim Fleming came to bat four times for Wilmington Ford, and four times he tried to bunt. He made first three times.

Put Jim had an excuse, for he had hurt his wrist, sliding into second, on the first time up, and couldn't hold a bat in his usual Casey Style.

The Third Basemen in the Softball league wouldn't be sorry if Jim turned into a bunter, every game.

Once again it was a pitcher's duel - a tight one. George O'Brien and Don Williams kept the game in hand, as Ford led 5-3 at the end of the fourth.

Put in the fifth the Ford boys spelled out the word defeat, as the Thunderbirds had their big inning. They wound out a total of seven runs.

A last inning rally by the Conquerors fell short, as O'Brien regained his pitching control and led his boys to their fourth straight victory.

After having been rained out Tuesday night, the Townies walloped the daylights out of the American Legion, 21 to 5, Friday evening.

The Townies were a bunch of slugging boys, that night. A total of 16 hits were collected. Greg Hakey had a perfect night at the plate, with two sacrifice flies, a double, two singles and a home run.

Dave Newhouse also had a homer, and two singles. Fine pitching by Dick Ethier allowed only 5 runs in the first 5 innings. However, Junie Fuller had to be called in to do a mop up job.

HE STUDIED THE HARD WAY
George T. H. Smith, 284 Shawsheen Avenue, with his daughters Susan, 5; Nancy 3, and Virginia.

George T. H. Smith is to receive a degree of Bachelor of Business Administration, from Northeastern University, next Sunday - after seven years of night school study.

A North Reading boy, son of Mr and Mrs Esau Smith, he enrolled in Northeastern in 1952. He already possessed a degree of Associate in Electronic Engineering.

His three children, and Mrs. Smith, the former Priscilla Gardner, of Reading, will be in the audience to see him receive his justly due honors.

A veteran of the United States Coast Guard, he has been a resident of Wilmington for the past three years.

Campanelli & Cardi

pointment with the Selectmen Monday, but had to wait until 10:30pm., because of other visitors.

Mr Campanelli told the Selectmen several times that the firm had always been able to be good neighbors everywhere it went, and that they never left unsightly messes after them. He hinted that the firm might give the 11 acres they own, off Concord Street, to the town, when the highway operation is finished.

Hagerty told Campanelli that Wilmington has built its zoning around the new highway, and that C&C only wanted to take gravel from the choice industrial sites, leaving nothing but ledge.

Atty Sheppard, at one point, mentioned with pride the Ruggiero pit, saying that it was 'a good job'. Hagerty told Sheppard that too much gravel had been excavated, making the resulting grade too steep. He agreed that a good loam spread ding job had been done.

Referring to operations in another pit, Mr. Campanelli said he had looked at the place, and noticed a number of children swimming there. He was told that the Selectmen were distressed about this, and were afraid that a child might be drowned, but that they could do nothing because it was private land.

Road Repair

Ryan told the Selectmen that C&C would, under their contract, repair any of the town roads which were damaged, after they had finished their contract. He referred specifically to Andover Street, near the Ruggiero pit, and the length of Woburn Street.

ON THE WAUGHPATH
Pony League

The Wilmington Wildcats of the Pony League rolled to victory for the fourth straight time without defeat on Saturday morning with a 9-0 rout of Reading's Goodall-Sanford team. Ricky Frotten (four-for-four), Jim Melzar (three-for-four), and Eddie Casey (single and triple) led the attack on Goodall's pitcher Johnson who pitched the entire game for the visitors.

Frotten started the game for the Wildcats, but Williamson pitched the 4th and 5th, and Outridge finished up in the 6th and 7th innings. Among the three pitchers, Reading collected only four hits in losing their third game vs two wins picked up earlier.

The Wilmington team will face its sternest test on Saturday afternoon in Reading at 3:00 when they run head on into the Y's Men who also own a 4-0 record. Winner of the game

Little League

Two straight wins, the most recent being a 4-3 squeaker over the AVCO Yankees, have moved the Chisholm Indians up the Little League ladder to second place in recent action. That game with the Yankees took place on Tuesday night with Pete Emery going the full nine innings for the victory which left his team only one game behind the Yankees in the team standings. Paul Currier, long-time team-mate of Pete's, edged the Unit Packet Tigers and Cory Coombs last Friday night by a 1-0 margin to put his team above the .500 mark.

In other games, the Yankees topped the Cain Red Sox 5-3 on Wednesday evening as Mike Anderson blasted his fifth home run of the season. Mike has now hit seven homers in his Little League career, including one last year and one the year before. The Tigers also beat the Red Sox on Monday night, holding off a late Red Sox rally to win by 6-5 behind the hurling of Billy Ritchie. Standings in the league as of Wednesday morning were:

Yankees	6	2	.750
Indians	5	3	.625
Red Sox	4	4	.500

Skating Club

The Wilmington Skating Club plans to run an outdoor barbecue 'soiree' on Saturday evening, June 27, at the home of the Roy Hersoms on Burlington Avenue. The dual purpose of honoring Jeanne Ashworth for being named to the first U.S. Olympic speed skating team and raising money to help defray Jeanne's Olympic expenses is expected to attract town and state officials in addition to many townspeople. An orchestra will provide a musical background for the steak dinner and the dancing which follows.

Anyone interested in securing tickets may contact Mr. James Tighe (OL8-3931), Mrs. Pearl Hersom (OL8-2832), or Mr. John Waugh (OL8-8547). The price is $7.00 per couple.

Boosters

New officers named to head the Foosters Association of Wilmington High School for the 1959-60 season were President: George Dyas, Vice President: Rob Hastings, Co-Secretary: Mrs. Fairfield and Mrs. Phillips, Treasurer: Mr. Cavanaugh. The Foosters Banquet on Saturday night attracted some 350 people who enjoyed a catered meal and the presentation of over 100 awards to boys and girls who distinguished themselves in high school sports over the past year.

$120 DEDUCTED FROM BILL ON NEW LADDER TRUCK

$120 is to be deducted from the bill from the Maxim Motor Company, for the new Ladder Truck, for the Fire Department. TM Calabrese, Monday night told the Selectmen that the firm was agreeable to the deduction, because of a penalty clause calling for a $10 deduction for each day that delivery was delayed, over 120 days.

Chairman of the Selectmen Don Kidder called the idea 'pretty small peanuts'. None of the Selectmen agreed with him.

CARD OF THANKS

To all who reached out in loving sympathy, we extend our feeling of deep and heartfelt gratitude.

COMPLAINT ABOUT NON-COOPERATION

The Board of Selectmen, Monday evening, received a complaint from the Massachusetts Department of Public Works saying that a man hired by them to investigate ownership of land, along the new Route 125 was not receiving 'cooperation' from the town.

The Selectmen answered that the man in question had been shown everything in the Assessors records, that they had spent 1 1/2 hours with the man, that the land in question was of a development that had been promoted many years ago, with poor records, and that the Town would still do anything in its power to assist the individual.

Jack Wyrzten Rally (fr Fr Pg)

at the J.W. Greer Co. Auditorium located on Route 38 on the road to Woburn and will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Wyrzten will bring with him a team of seven including tenor soloist Ken Nanfelt, organist Norman Clayton, the 'Word of Life' quartet, and its pianist. The rally, which will consist of stirring music and dynamic, straight-from-the-shoulder preaching, will be primarily for young people. However, since Mr. Wyrzten's preaching engagements in this area are quite infrequent, many adults are expected to attend, and are, in fact, cordially invited.

The rally is expected to draw a large number of people from many communities of Eastern Massachusetts. Rev. Eliot Castillo, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wilmington, which is sponsoring the rally, reports that special invitations have been sent to scores of pastors representing many denominations for this rally which will be of an interdenominational nature.

A former bandleader, Mr. Wyrzten is the originator and director of 'Word of Life Fellowship Inc.' of New York which for over fifteen years has sought to lead the youth of America out of the paths of sin and into a right-relationship with God through Jesus Christ. His belief is not merely intellectual but also experimental, and his spirited enthusiasm and straight-forward preaching attracts literally thousands to the gospel which he preaches with complete assurance.

The names of Ken Nanfelt and Norman Clayton are known to thousands throughout the country and in many parts of the world.

Ken Nanfelt, 21 years old, comes from Middleboro, Mass., and has sung before audiences in several European countries. Norman Clayton is distinguished not only as an organist, but as composer of gospel songs. Among the hundreds composed are 'Now I Belong to Jesus' and 'No One Understands Like Jesus' George Beverly Shea, America's well-known gospel singer, who is a member of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Team has recorded numerous Clayton songs.
